

Fee waivers

The ICAZ 2018 Organization Committee is pleased to announce that a limited number registration fee waivers will be available to students who present their work at the meeting.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Applicants must be MSc or PhD students. Priority will be given to graduate students working in low GDP countries.
- Applicants must have registered to ICAZ 2018 and submitted a poster/talk abstract.
- Applicants must submit an application that explains their motivation, and includes a support letter from their supervisor.

HOW TO APPLY:

Send your application by email to the ICAZ 2018 Organization Committee: general@icaz2018ankara.com, with the subject "Waiver application".
The deadline for waiver applications is 20th April.

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS:

The applicant should prepare a maximum 2 page document including:

- The name of the applicant;
- The applicant's brief CV;
- Current sources of financial support for travel and research;
- An explanation of how attendance to the meeting will support the attendant's professional goals.

The application should also contain a support letter from the applicant's academic advisor confirming the student status and the need for a waiver.

This should be maximum 1 page.

The full application should be submitted by the student, as a 3 page single PDF-file.
